Hold On To Your Butt Day Volunteer Waiver of Liability

Date/Location: Saturday November 14, 2009 / _____

Definition of Volunteer: An individual who performs services without pay (voluntary service). Voluntary service shall include service performed by an authorized volunteer who receives no remuneration other than work assignment-related expenses: for example, meals, transportation, lodging or reimbursement for incidental expenses.

Loss of Volunteer Personal Property: Loss or damage of personal property used while providing volunteer services to the Surfrider Foundation and/or the city in which this cleanup takes place is not reimbursable by any of the above aforementioned parties.

Group Volunteer Sign-in: Volunteers should also take the necessary precautions when demonstrating on street intersections. Volunteers should not stand in the street, or step in the way of any oncoming traffic. Volunteers should only cross streets at intersection crosswalks and when cross traffic has come to a complete stop. Volunteers should also be aware of the possibility of over –exposure to the sun and the possibility of heat stress. Volunteers should wear hats, gloves, and sturdy shoes. It is requested that volunteers not wear sandals, thongs, or go barefoot. Volunteers performing trash/litter cleanup are advised that sharp objects (broken glass, needles, etc.) may be present on the beach, in the park and on the street and sidewalks. These items require special handling. To preclude possible exposure to blood borne pathogens or other hazardous material, volunteers should not make any effort to pick them up. By signing below, volunteers agree to hold harmless the Surfrider Foundation and the City of San Diego, City of Imperial Beach or the City of Encinitas, where this cleanup /demonstration takes place, for any injury or loss which may occur during the event.
